THE FUTURE OF THE FAMILY:
INVOLVEMENT,
RESPONSIBILITY, TRADITION

*THE FUTURE OF MANKIND, THE FUTURE OF TRADITIONS,
AND THE FUTURE OF THE FAMILY SHARE THE SAME FATE —
TO EITHER BE BROUGHT FORWARD INTO CONFORMANCE
WITH EXISTING REALITIES OR TO BE TOTALLY EXTINGUISHED
LIKE THE TRAGICALLY FATED PREHISTORIC SPECIES WHICH CAME BEFORE US*

...as is true in the economic realm and the significance of debt peonage, the leading “thinkers” in the West neglect the fundamental understandings of familial human relationships from thousands of years of human history. It is this neglect, whether out of a fetishization of the past or delusion of a future completely disconnected from the past, which is hindering forward progress in the development of social relationships, and is driving society back toward reactionary, unworkable, and unsustainable ideals for human interactions.

America must deal with the isolation of its masses by bringing forward the original “correct” elements of the traditional nuclear families and normal gender roles into the reconstitution of the more advanced family, compatible with a communal model which is bound to arise under the new prevailing economic, technological, and social paradigm, where monopoly production has thrown working people into one totalizing organism of social relations.

“(Monogamy) far from disappearing, it will, on the contrary, be realized completely. For with the transformation of the means of production into social property there will disappear also wage-labor, the proletariat, and therefore the necessity for a certain – statistically calculable – number of women to surrender themselves for money. Prostitution disappears; monogamy, instead of collapsing, at last becomes a reality – also for men.”

-Fredrich Engels, “Origins of the Family, Private Property, and the State.”

Modernity has brought the family precisely to this crossroads, where the nuclear age, the emergence of artificial intelligence, and advances in biological science simultaneously render possible the dissolution of the family into superfluousness or the elevation of the family to Olympian heights.

*THE TRADITIONS OF MANKIND ARE NOT SIMPLY MEMORIES TO BE HELD FONDLY, BUT
REVELATIONS AND EXPRESSIONS OF THE
HARMONIOUS WISDOMS AND WAYS OF LIFE
WHICH ILLUMINATE A PATH FOR THE SUCCESS
AND SYNCHRONICITY OF HUMANITY IN THE FUTURE.*
